

SPRING 2022

ALUMNI EMPOWERING STUDENTS

A monthly speaker series featuring USC Graduate School Alumni who are redefining what it means to do and live social justice.

Advancing justice is a critical aspect of leadership and professional success. Spend your lunch hour being inspired by USC alumni sharing their experiences, perspectives, and trajectories. Each event will include time for Q/A for students to engage with the speaker.

Follow the registration links for event titles & topics.

All events
Live on Zoom

USC Graduate School

David P. "Anderson"

Marshall School of Business
General Manager, Think Together

📅 Wed. February 23, 2022

🕒 12.00 PM - 1.00 PM

🔗 Register HERE

Dr. Melina Abdullah

Dornsife College LSA
Co-Founder, Black Lives Matter Los Angeles & Professor CSU-LA

Co-sponsored w/ USC Center for Black Cultural and Student Affairs & USC Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

📅 Wed. March 30, 2022

🕒 12.00 PM - 1.00 PM

🔗 Register HERE

Ifunanya Nweke

Price School of Public Policy
Founder & Exec. Director, Jazz Hands for Autism

📅 Wed. April 13, 2022

🕒 12.00 PM - 1.00 PM

🔗 Register HERE

Deena Saunders-Green

Marshall School of Business
Founder & CEO, Green Pines Creative Inc.

📅 Wed. May 18, 2022

🕒 12.00 PM - 1.00 PM

🔗 Register HERE