

SPRING 2024 GRADUATE EVENTS

USC Career Center events tailored for graduate students.

bit.ly/springevents24

Doctoral & Graduate Career Series:

Branding My Ph.D. Experience on LinkedIn

January 17 @ 5 - 6 PM PT (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

Learn what employers are looking for on LinkedIn and how using the platform can help leverage your professional brand and employment opportunities.

Career Fest

January 29 - February 2 (Time and Location Vary)

A week-long series of panels, discussions, and workshops hosted by departments across campus to prepare students for internship, job, and grad school opportunities. Learn more about networking, interviewing, and personal branding.

Interview Strategies for Success in a Digital Age

February 1 @ 12 - 1 PM PT (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

Ace your interviews in the digital age! This workshop equips you with strategic insights to navigate, showcase adaptability, and position yourself for success in today's competitive job market utilizing AI tools.

Industry Insights

February 7 - March 21 (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

A series of student-led panels held every Fall and Spring semester. These educational and interactive panels are designed for students exploring various industries and careers.

Doctoral & Graduate Career Series:

The Future of Work and Your Skills

February 14 @ 5 - 6 PM PT (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

Skills matter more than ever in the future of work. Hiring trends are focused on AI and skill-based hiring. Learn from experts as they share how you can leverage the skills in greatest demand.

JCPenney Suit-Up Event

February 20 - March 5 (📍 Shop online or in-store)

Shop in-person at your local JCPenney store or online, February 20 - March 5. This exclusive shopping experience provides Trojans with an extra 30% discount on select apparel, including professional attire and more! Register on connectSC to receive information on how to access these discounts.

Recent Grad & Students Career Fair

April 11 @ 10 AM - 2 PM PT (📍 Trousdale Parkway)

Held in the spring for graduating students and recent graduates seeking internship, part-time, and full-time opportunities.

Doctoral & Graduate Career Series:

Maximizing Your CV to Create a Resume

January 29 @ 5 - 6 PM PT (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

As a graduate student, you are aware that a Curriculum Vitae (CV) details your academic and research achievements. As you venture into employment opportunities outside of academia, there might be instances where you're required to provide a resume instead. This workshop aims to guide you in converting your academic background into a resume tailored for industry positions.

Doctoral & Graduate Career Series:

Creating & Communicating Your Elevator Pitch

January 31 @ 5 - 6 PM PT (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

So, what do you do? This is an introductory question you may have encountered in many networking opportunities. Do you have an answer to this question? Learn techniques to answer this getting-to-know-you question widely used in many settings.

Pursuing a Masters or Doctoral Degree

February 1 @ 5 - 6 PM (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

Thinking about graduate school? Explore the steps needed to reach your next educational goal while gaining insights from current graduate students.

Spring Career Fair

February 8 @ 10 AM - 2 PM PT (📍 Trousdale Parkway)

In-person and open to all classes and majors. Students and recent graduates can connect with over 150 organizations recruiting USC's top talent.

Doctoral & Graduate Career Series:

Our Services At-A-Glance

February 28 @ 5 - 6 PM PT (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

Learn the variety of online resources available to you as you navigate your job search and beyond.

Networking for Introverts

March 7 @ 5 - 6 PM (📍 Virtual on Zoom)

We know networking is important, but how do you start? During this virtual session, the Career Center will provide tips and tricks to gain more confidence in your networking skills. Come to this session to demystify the idea of networking, create a networking plan that works for your unique personality, and develop an effective personal introduction.